Brand New Book  Print on Demand .With overly packed schedules and overly packed homes, most of us live under some level of accompanying stress. Our lives have become unbalanced, and we are paying a high cost because of it. Our personal relationships, spiritual well-being, emotional stability, and even our physical health can be compromised when we live a life that is out of balance and disorganized. If we don't start making better choices that line up with our value systems and help promote a life that flourishes, the cost to us and our families will rise. This book provides a practical and thoughtful way to look at what it really means to be organized from the heart. You'll be examining heart issues, relationships, personality and even some great practical ideas to help you face your organizational challenges for the glory of God.
