Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Old Catholic Maryland and Its Early Jesuit Missionaries The history of our Holy and Divine Religion in this New World is a truly beautiful and heroic story. In pondering over it we are moved to joyfully exclaim: How beautiful are the feet of them that preach the gospel of peace; of them that bring glad tidings of good things. As we read of whole villages and entire tribes being cleansed in the sacred waters of Baptism, our hearts swell with unbounded gratitude towards the Author of all graces and mercies. Even Protestant writers glow with the fire of admiration as they depict the planting of the Standard of the Cross on the banks of our rivers and along the shores of our great lakes. What picture, indeed, can be more touching, or more inspiring than that of our early missionaries carving the fair sign of redemption on the tall forest trees; of our black-robed chiefs preaching beside their rustic altars to red groups of savage warriors? After having closely and calmly examined many old dusty records and yellow manuscripts I feel myself justified in saying that the early apostles of Maryland deserve a brilliant chapter in the History of Christian Missions.
