Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Class of 1870: Dartmouth College, 1917 The death of Francis Brown, which occurred on the 15th of October last, removed from the circle of the alumni of the College one who was in many respects its foremost representative. Dr. Brown s relation to the College was historic and inherited. His grandfather, whose name he bore, was the president of the College during the troubled years from 1815 to 1820, and to his wisdom, sacrifice and devotion were due, in great measure, the security of the charter and the existence of the College. His father, Samuel Gilman Brown, was a graduate of Dartmouth and a professor from 1841 to 1867, then president of Hamilton College, and in his later life again an interim instructor at Dartmouth, filling a vacancy in the department of intellectual philosophy. Dr. Brown was himself a graduate of the College in the class of 1870, being the foremost scholar of the class, and a tutor in Greek for two years, and in 1879, on the death of Professor Proctor, lie was invited to the chair of Greek. Later, he was a member of the College board of preachers for the eight years of its existence, and from 1905, until his death, he was a member of the Board of Trust. Twice lie was offered the presidency of the College, but felt that the call of duty lay in another direction. Following in the steps of his father and his grandfather, he turned in his youth to the Christian ministry, and graduating at Union Theological Seminary in 1877 he received the Seminary fellowship, by which he enjoyed a two years* residence at the...
